

April 30, 1973

SENATOR BARNETT: Generally, the question as to what they requested and what this cut out.

SENATOR MARVEL: All right. Each Legislator as of the 4th of April, 1973 received a 19 page brochure which spelled out...first of all, summarized the Agency request, secondly the Governor's recommendation and thirdly, the Appropriations Committee recommendations. The summary was on Page 1 and the rest of the pages broke down the requests by Departments. Now, was that the question you had?

SENATOR BARNETT: Well that's part of it. The only thing that I would like to know is, maybe I'm asking for too much. Maybe I'm asking to be too specific on Agencies but you had two hundred and some amendments appropriated through your Committee and this was just not on direction or, as you stated on the floor, Senator Marvel, that it was on direction, that basically the two differences of the two budgets.

SENATOR MARVEL: Basically, the difference in the totals was about 2% and I tried to summarize. At the same time, I was telling Senator Chambers at one time that there was no difference in the area that he was interested in which was welfare, that the Committee had recommended the Governor's request. That we agreed in this area because of the fact, and I talked about this before, about the fact that everything, basically, having to do with appropriations at this time because of the problems connected with the national government. I am not talking about the Watergate problems. I am talking about the other problems, put us all in a status of limbo. So, we discussed welfare to the extent that there was no difference in the two recommendations. I, also, made a discussion
